HOW BEAUTIFUL IS ISLAM THAT YOU can make dua for SOMEONE WITHOUT them even knowing
AND IN RETURN
the angels make dua for you.

Assalamualaikum my Champions,

I HAVE INTERNET! (For those of you who missed the news on IG, I shared that since we are now back in Morocco after 10 months, Alhamdulillah, we had to slowly get everything in order + fix things up, including the wifi.) I apologise if this email is later than usual, but technically it's still Monday in Morocco. cheeky laugh

So many of you sent Duas my way, and I personally believe that it's from your prayers that Allah SWT has eased my affairs. And my heart is full knowing that for every Dua we send to each other, the angels pray for us in return!

Inner Peace Challenges

As we are in the blessed month of Rabiulawal, the month to celebrate Rasulallah SAW, the one who has the most inner peaceeeeeeeee, we thought we should marry the challenges for Inner Peace with activities that relate to Rasulallah SAW. We kickstarted it with writing our Intentions on getting to know Rasulallah SAW. To be honest, I was feeling slightly off with the house being a mess, and my work being affected without internet, but taking the time to write down my intentions made me feel sooooo at peace. Here's my list of intentions if you want to read it. Have you written yours? I can't wait to dive in with Challenge #2 and #3, more details will be on our Instagram, so be sure to follow us ok?

a beautiful Dua

Ya Allah, take away from me everything that takes me away from You.

As we are celebrating Rasulullah SAW in this blessed month of Rabiulaway, there is a Hadith that I wanted to share with you. Sayyidatina 'A'isha RA reported: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) stood for prayer with a garment which had designs over it. He looked at these designs and after completing the prayer said: Take this garment to Abu Jahm b. Hudhaifa and bring me a plain one for it has distracted me just now. (Sahih Muslim)

Subhan'Allah. For Rasulullah SAW, even if its just a piece of garment, as long as it distracted him from Allah SWT, he SAW didn't want it. 🤔
🤔 Let's follow Rasulullah SAW's Sunnah by removing the distractions in our lives, big and small, and should we struggle doing so, make dua to Allah SWT to give us the strength and the discipline to do so!

Muslim Meme

OK this one is not "funny-funny" but incredibly relatable! One of the Champs shared this and I had to re-share - who else wakes up at 8AM with that sinking feeling, "Oh Allah, if only I woke up!!!" PS: On another note, aside from setting alarms, one of the best methods that have worked for me is making an intention before I sleep to be early for Fajr and making Dua to Allah SWT for Him to wake me up. I figured, "Allah SWT is def more powerful than a string of alarms!" and it has always worked! Try it Champs!

Something to Ponder

Until Allah SWT
opens the next door, continue praising Him

This morning after my Fajr prayers, I realised something that made me..... soooooo soooooo soooooo in awe of Allah's plans for me. I've been living in Morocco for the past 7 years, next to a mosque called Jamaa'

Sourian (The Syrian Mosque), literally 3 mins away, but I never thought anything of it. Until today, I realised that I've been praying to learn under beautiful teachers for the longest time and Allah SWT has blessed me the opportunity to connect with beautiful Ustazahs who were taught and trained in Syria (Ustazah Alima is one of them!) and all these while Allah SWT has actually been giving me "clues + signs"!

This taught me that, again and again, Allah SWT is always planning something beautiful for us! So as you wait for the "door" to open, never stop thinking well of Him, never stop asking from Him, and most of all, never stop being grateful to Him because He has and will always perfectly plan your life in the most intricate way!
